A scenic view of a river flowing through a forested area. In the foreground, a person is sitting on a large, light-colored rock. The river is surrounded by trees, some of which are bare, suggesting a cooler season. The background shows a steep, rocky hillside.

An aerial photograph of a golf course. In the foreground, a large, vibrant green fairway curves through a wooded area. A small, light-colored clubhouse building is visible on the left side of the course. The background shows a residential neighborhood with houses and a winding road, all under a hazy, overcast sky.

A photograph of a forest path. In the foreground, a large, textured tree trunk stands on the left. The path is paved and has several large, light blue painted arrows pointing in different directions. The background is a dense forest with many thin tree trunks and lush green foliage. Sunlight filters through the canopy, creating a bright, dappled light effect.

A large, mature tree with dense, brown, autumn-colored foliage, standing in a grassy area. In the background, a red building and a fence are visible under a blue sky.

A photograph of a small, white, gabled house with a dark door and a small porch, surrounded by bare trees and a large, dark, rectangular structure, possibly a greenhouse or shed. The foreground shows a large, dark, rectangular area, likely a garden bed or pond.
